

Readers of all kinds, I read a great book called Pig on the Titanic. It takes place on the Titanic. The pig belongs to Edith Rosenbaum. She was a Fashion Designer in Paris. The pig was given to her by her mother for good luck on the Titanic. Edith took the pig everywhere.

~Ashlynn

A CROOKED KIND OF PERFECT

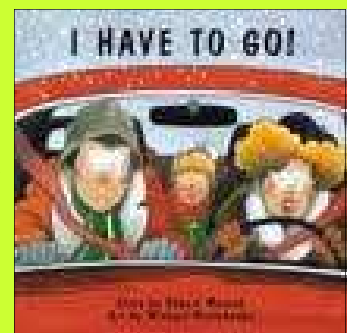

Zoe Elias is an 11 yr old girl who dreamed of playing the piano but she really plays the big wheeze bag organ. She thought of playing at Carriage Hall and winning awards but when she was playing for her music teacher Miss Person, she suggests that Zoe should be in the Perform-o-rama organ competition. Zoe thinks about it and tells her father but he informed her that Zoe's mom was not going to attend the first show.

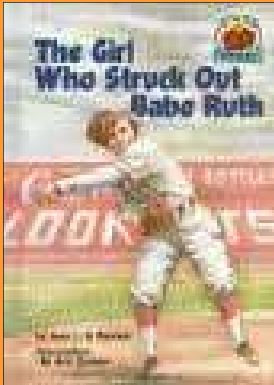

There's 2 shows, one on Saturday and the last show on Sunday. Zoe won 4th place and was one of the top 5 finalist. ~Liz

I have to go!!

One day a boy named Andrew decided not go to the bathroom ever again. That day he was going to his grandparents' house in the winter. So his parents got into the car and started to drive. After one minute, Andrew yelled, "I have to go." Read this funny story to see what his parents and grandparents do. ~Marina

The Girl Who Struck Out Babe Ruth

The girl who struck out Babe Ruth was a young, pretty girl whose dream was to be a major league pitcher and strike out Babe Ruth. Finally, the girl gets her dream come true of being a major league pitcher and even better she strikes Babe out and someone else.

~Christopher

Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone

The epic tale of Harry Potter all started in Godric's Hollow where the Potters lived. On a quiet Halloween night the Potters were all relaxed and suddenly the dark lord Voldemort came rushing in and killed Harry Potter's parents but failed to kill Harry. Hagrid, the Hogwarts game keeper, came and rescued him and brought him to his aunt's and uncle's house. He was raised there until he went on a vacation out at sea -Hagrid had come back for Harry and petrified the Dursleys. He took Harry to Diagon Alley to get school supplies and somewhere along the way he met the mean Draco Malfoy. The moment he laid his eyes on him he knew he would hate him. On the Hogwarts express he met his new best friends Ron and Hermione. They are all put up on a quest to get the Sorcerer's Stone before Severus Snape who is working for Voldemort. Who will win? To find out read The Harry Potter series.

~Kelsey

Percy Jackson and the Olympians: The Lightning Thief

This amazing adventure begins in Percy Jackson and the Olympians: The Lightning Thief when a boy named Percy realizes that he's different. That's a shock. He's about to get kicked out of boarding school again, but when he vaporizes the monster algebra teacher with a magical pen/sword who could blame them. Soon no where in the world is safe for Percy.

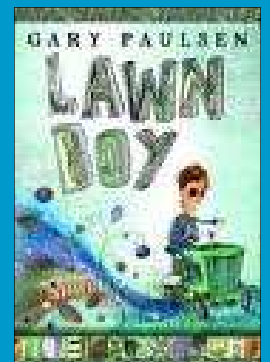

Oh, I forgot to mention - Percy is a Demigod. A demigod is someone who has a normal parent and a god parent.

Percy races to Camp Half-Blood where he finds out his dad is Poseidon. Life isn't a breeze in the god world though. Zeus' master lightning bolt is stolen and unfortunately Percy is blamed. Now he has until the summer solstice, just ten days away to go on an epic quest with his demigod friend Annabeth (or are they more than friends?) and his pal Grover the Satyr to find the bolt, unite with his father and let the prophecy unravel in some unexpected ways. You'll have to read it to find out the rest of this magical tale by Rick Riordan.

~Rebecca

Lawn Boy

There was this boy who got a lawnmower for his birthday and when he looked at it, there was a rabbit for going and a turtle for stopping. So he tried it and mowed his lawn and his neighbor saw him and he asked how much is it to mow his lawn. And that is how the boy started his job. He made a lot of money. Then someone stole his money but he got arrested and they spent the money on a vacation.

~Christian

Dear Reader,

If you like myth, dragons and battle, I have the book for you - Red Dragon Codex. It's fast paced and full of suspense. It's full of good and evil. Mudd is a young human on a quest to save his town's only future seer. Along the way he picks up a dwarf who is on a quest to get a magical axe also stolen by a red dragon. Hope you enjoy this book. ~Skyler

Dear Readers,

The book that I am reading is Ten Kids, No Pets.

This book is about a family with ten kids. All the kids want is a pet. The ten kids names are Abigail, Calandra, Ira, Dagwood, Gardenia, Janthina, Eberhard, Hannah, Faustine, and Bainbridge. In the first chapter they move from New York City to a farm house. That chapter was called Abigail. The next chapter is called Calandra. It is about when Calandra went to find a secret place where she can read a book, and where her siblings can't bother her. I hope you can read this book and enjoy it!

~Samantha

The Fire Within is a book about dragons. A guy named David moves in to the Pennykettle's house and there are a lot of dragons that come to life. His quest is to figure out the fire within the Fire Tear. There's a squirrel named Conker that helps along the way. You have to read to find out the ending.

~Olivia

