

Join the eLanguages community. Bring the international dimension to life for your students.

- find international partner schools and start collaborating right away
- supports activities in all subject areas and works across the whole age range
- join existing curriculum-based projects or start your own
- share podcasts, photos, presentations, film clips and more
- get accreditation via the DCSF International School Award.

If you already have a partner school then you can set up your own private project space to communicate and share classwork. No special IT skills are required, and the British Council's dedicated team is on hand to offer help and advice every step of the way.

'It is really amazing that our link school can share many things and communicate with us online. Thank you so much again.'

Teacher from Number 12 Middle School in China, linked on eLanguages with Wade Deacon School in the UK

'It's brilliant! I've been looking for a set of web tools for school links for the last two years. I've found many of the tools that eLanguages offers on a variety of other sites, but never all under the same roof. Even better, the instructions are in the native language of the user.'

Advanced Skills Teacher, Notre Dame High School, Norfolk

For more information visit www.elanguages.org or e-mail elanguages@britishcouncil.org

eLanguages department for children, schools and families