

Global Exploits

Hatters Day Making Hats

From Around The World

Donning different hats

Depending on where you live and the way you read dates, Mad Hatter's Day can either be June the 10th or October the 6th. Mad Hatter's Day is a celebration of the characters from Alice In Wonderland, and you can do this in a number of ways, but the easiest thing to do is to wear a hat.

We all love hats. "If you want someone to remember you, wear a hat", Alice recounts. They are so incredibly chic and fabulous.

Of course, if you do have a great hat, this is the perfect day to wear it. You can go minimal with a beanie or snood (pin something a little sparkly to it to glam it up!) or tie a vintage scarf around.

Children at BBPS, Dwarka had a gala time making hats and caps which included the famous cowboy hat, chef's hat or toque and wide brimmed sunhats. It was great fun!

LEARNING TO GREET THE WORLD IN DIFFERENT LANGUAGES

Saying hello

Different nationalities

One advantage of having a constant stream of international visitors in your school is that one learns at least a dozen ways to greet people from different parts of the world. This idea gave birth to the project "Say Hello to the World" which took several creative turns. Pupils not only learnt to say hello in different ways, they created poetry using those words. They were thrilled to dress up in the native costume of their chosen country and chant the greeting to everyone who came their way. The project was very successful in transforming a local school into a hub of internationalism. This project was chosen for "The Guard of Honour" on the Annual Day Celebrations in the school. All the dignitaries present were enchanted by the international pageant of primary school pupils greeting them in different languages of the world.

Musical greetings

Wise words

Activity Number

Activity Cover Sheet

Please complete a separate sheet for each activity

School Name:	Bal Bharati Public School Dwarka
Title of activity:	Learning to greet the world in different languages
Teacher responsible:	Ms. A. Malhotra, Ms. Jasmine and all class teachers of Pre-Primary and Pre-School.
Subjects involved:	Language and communication, dramatics.
Brief details of the aim, content and outcomes of the activity	One advantage of having a constant stream of International Visitors in the school is that one learns at least a dozen ways to greet people from different parts of the world. This idea gave birth to the project "Say Hello to the World" which took several creative turns. Pupils not only learnt to say hello in different ways, they created poetry using those words. They were thrilled to dress up in the native costumes of their chosen country and chant the greeting to everyone who came their way. The project was very successful in transforming a local school into a hub of internationalism. This project was for "The Guard of Honour" on the Annual Day celebrations in the school. All the dignitaries present were enchanted by the international pageant of primary school pupils greeting them in different languages of the world.
Countries explored	Various countries of the world.
Participants	400 students of Pre-Primary and Pre-School classes.
Other sources of information	Internet , Library books
Time period of activity:	Sept 09
Number of students involved in this activity:	400
Age range of students involved:	3-5 yrs
Type of Evidence included:	1. Hello Poems 2. Display Board 3. Photographs 4. Magazine Report 5. Feedback

Poem ..

Snappy Zippy happy Wonderful day
How I want to say.
A Big huge hello to all of you all there
Madaame, Mesiya, Bonjour
Satshriyakaal, Aap sabko mera Namaskaar Kabul kijaye salaam, From the land of the rising sun.
Konnichiwa
'Dobryen' from the land of our sweet Russian friends.
With all those joyous 'hello's'
we all are sure Everybody will have a great "Jai ho" and a chinese "Neil hoe" for the day to follow.
From D.P.S. Dwarka.

Bal Bharati Public School
1117 Manesar, 528

Hi!
I am the world
We rule the world
Meihou!
We eat minchow
But you rule the world
Just tell me how Gutentag!
Hitler ruled the world
Marhaba!
Past his history
Today oil runs all
& we rule the world
More me
We are big & we are strong
We do rule
You all are very wond
Namaskaar
All of us have our own nest
Let me tell you
We all are the best
Let's join ^{hands} & Rule the World
Friend
to rule the world -3

Hello Poems

Teacher Evaluation of International Activity

Name: Jasmine Kaur
Title of activity: Greeting the world. Date: 13/10/15

Please comment on the impact this activity has had on the students involved:
The students were acquainted with different ways of greeting each other in different languages. They were quite enthusiastic about using new words, some of them being funny such as ciao नमो, bonjour etc.

Please comment on the impact this activity has had on you and any other staff involved:
It was an enriching experience to see children dressed up in beautiful attires and greeting each other in different languages.

Please make any suggestions for improvement (e.g. What was the most effective part of this activity for you and why? What was the least effective and why?):
Effective audio-visual aids should be used to make it more clear and interesting.

Thank you for your time and comments.
Jasmine Kaur
13/10/15

ISA Teacher Evaluation

Teacher Evaluation of International Activity

Name: Swati Soni
Title of activity: Joy Hells to the world. Date: 03/09/09.

Please comment on the impact this activity has had on the students involved:
The children got acquainted with the dressing style and language of people of other countries of the world. The children also learnt a few new words.

Please comment on the impact this activity has had on you and any other staff involved:
Children were very attractive in their dresses of different countries. Some children were very prepared and they had learnt long dialogues in French, Japanese, Hindi etc.

Please make any suggestions for improvement (e.g. What was the most effective part of this activity for you and why? What was the least effective and why?):
Each child should have been asked to dress up like a person from some other country so as to ensure mass participation and each child would have got a chance to speak on the mike. The activity could have been an extra-class activity.

Swati Soni
11/09/09

Thank you for your time and comments.

Feedback

Teacher Evaluation of International Activity

Name: Kavita Chaudha
 Title of activity: Say Hello to the World Date: 3/9/09

Please comment on the impact this activity has had on the students involved:

The children got acquainted with the dressing style and language of people of other countries.

Please comment on the impact this activity has had on you and any other staff involved:

The children were looking graceful in different costumes of different countries.

Please make any suggestions for improvement (e.g. What was the most effective part of this activity for you and why? What was the least effective and why?):

A musical party could have been organised.

Kavita Chaudha
 Thank you for your time and comments.

ISA Teacher Evaluation

Student Evaluation of International Activity

Name: Anshu sharma Std: I
 Title of activity: Greeting the world

What have you enjoyed most about this activity? What did you like best?

children were dressed in colourful costumes and had brought attractive props.

What new ideas or information have you learned from this activity?

I came to know about greeting the world in different languages which was very new to me. children recited funny ~~stanzas~~ rhymes with funny actions. ~~The rhymes.~~

What have you least enjoyed or found some difficulty with?

There was no mike, so the children were not clearly audible.

Thank you for your time and comments.

Annual

You are our inspiration

"One morning you'll awake to find
That you are the person you dreamt of,
Doing what you wanted to do,
Simply because you had the courage
To believe in your potential
And to hold on to your dreams."

The stage was set, the crowds were enthralled and the spectacle was inconceivably beautiful. Indeed the school lived upto and surpassed all expectations in putting up a grandiloquent show in its 12th Annual Day Celebrations on November 8, 2009. The programme was embellished by the presence of luminaries such as Prof. Shyam Menon, Vice Chancellor, Dr B R Ambedkar University, Delhi; Ms Aarti Mehra, former Mayor of Delhi; Ms Maria Mathai, Director, Canadian Education Centre and Principals from distinguished schools of Delhi. School Principal, Ms Suruchi Gandhi presented annual school report highlighting the strides made by students in curricular as well as co-curricular fields.

Standing tall together

United colours of India

Greet the World

Making music

Japan at its best

Extravaganza 2009

The students' month long sweat bore rich dividends as the cultural programme mellifluously touched hearts. The soulful orchestra, the enigmatic ballet 'Vision with a Mission' and the subtle but powerfully rendered ballet 'Gyan Ganga' were in their own league. The exhibition 'Windows to the World' was a class apart and enthused crowds. The programme was attended by Mr K K Khullar, School Chairman, and President Child Education Society; Mrs K.K. Khullar; Mr L R Channa, Vice-President, CES; Mrs Channa; Ms Rekha Sharma, Secretary/ Manager and other distinguished members of Managing Committee and eminent

Charmed by the music

Greet the World

guests. The breathtaking programme was richly lauded by the dignitaries and the audience alike.

The beautiful show ended but the magic continued...

Fruitful interaction

The call of the wild

Sure show stoppers

All is well that ends well

Heigh ho! palanquin bearers

