

The peanut seller came by saying Hi, Bi, Hi, why?? giving name to his peanuts like Mumbai peanuts fly

And sun shines abruptly sniffed the air which wasn't so fair

They thought and thought and thought was the sun coming along?

They decided to get cotton candy
On ground which was sandy
Now they could not move
Not one inch nor one bit

But still they had to prove that they have many candies of fruit

All the walkers, who said "Risk Risk"
Cholesterol, BP, High risk
They never wanted to be so sick/sick

Suddenly they heard someone cry to see the gorgeous looking sky.

But now also sun was not there
But it was a nightmare

People have great fun
On the beach as they play and run
But without sun

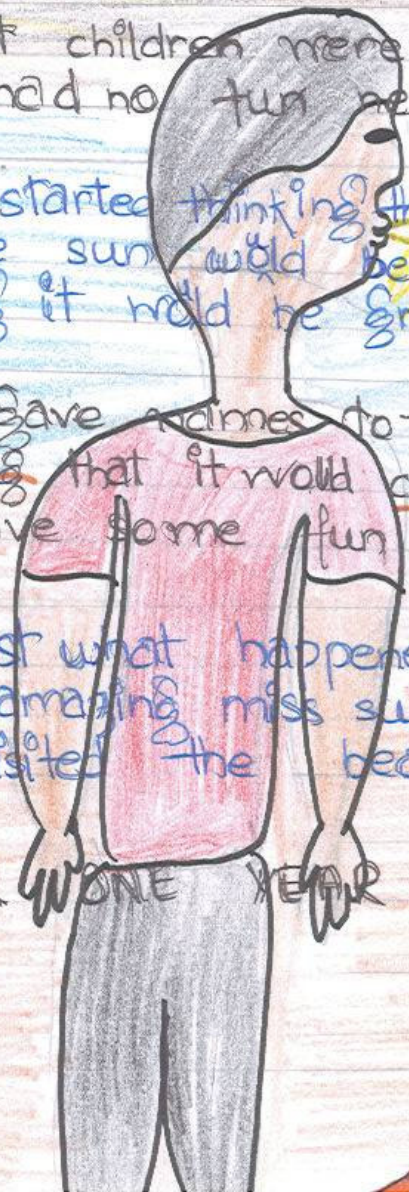

At last children were bored
They had no fun near the shore

They started thinking that if
If the sun would be like bubble gum
Chewing it would be great fun

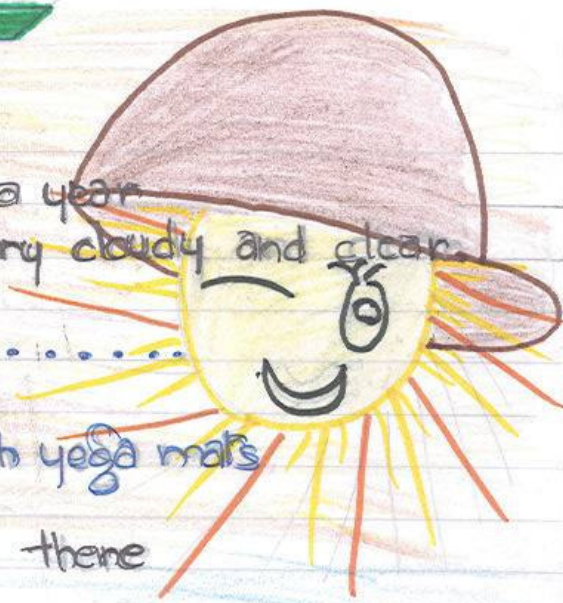

They gave names to the sun
Thinking that it would come
To have some fun

At last what happened abruptly
The amazing miss sun shines visited the beach

AFTER ONE YEAR

The amazing sunshines
Hadn't been to beach in a year
Now it seemed to be very cloudy and clear.

So it seemed to be
Sky covered with hats
And beach covered with yoga mats

A laughing club was there
Tickling themselves silly
With laughing sound
Ha! ha! and the! He!
Some were saying cheese
Many were at ease

Kites were soaring high
Into the black hats of sky
Blue, pink, red and yellow
Flam by many great fellows

The balloon seller was twisting the balloons
Into funny shapes
Abruptly, one moment
It was a duckling
And then a giant grape
Which became a game
